Dear Colleagues:

We are excited to announce an opportunity for faculty to attend an Interfolio Faculty Activity Reporting - Training for Faculty Users on Tuesday, November 19, 2-3:00 p.m. Interfolio Client Success Manager Catrina Fuentes will be leading our training for this session on Faculty180, the Interfolio module used for Faculty Activity Reporting. The virtual training will cover key topics related to Faculty180 including:

- Navigating Faculty180.
- The process for inputting and editing faculty profile and activity data.
- How to generate/download a CV.
- How support accounts can emulate users.
- Other tips and tricks for Faculty180 users.

We will be offering this virtual training through Teams. Please register via the link below:

- Tuesday, November 19, 2:00-3:00pm Registration link

This training will be recorded and made available online if you are unable to attend. Please feel free to reach out with any questions.

We hope to see you there!

Sincerely,

Sue James, Ph.D.
Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs

ABOUT INTERFOLIO

Conceived by academics, Interfolio is an education technology company headquartered in Washington, DC, USA and in Cambridge, England, UK. Founded in 1999, Interfolio operates the first-ever Faculty Information System for higher education institutions, the widely used Dossier product for individual scholars, and the Researchfish impact assessment platform for funders and research organizations. More than 400 higher education institutions, research funders, and academic organizations based in 15 countries—and over 700,000 active scholars on the job market—use Interfolio’s technology. Interfolio provides scholar-first products for the full academic lifecycle—from job seeking to professional accomplishments, committee service, funding award compliance, career growth and advancement, administrative leadership, and beyond.
