Inclusive Excellence Award

Nomination Information

Award Summary and Eligibility

The Inclusive Excellence Award is provided annually by the Office of the Provost and Executive Vice President to recognize faculty and staff who support a culture of inclusive excellence exemplified by Colorado State University's Principles of Community. This award serves to highlight and reward faculty and staff who go above and beyond the standard expectations for employees with similar responsibilities.

Two CSU employees will be honored each year — one faculty and one staff member. All faculty and staff are eligible to nominate a colleague and to be nominated. Faculty includes CCAF and T/TT. Staff includes Administrative Professional and State Classified. Each recipient will receive a $2,500 award.

Award Criteria

- At least three years as an employee of Colorado State University.
- Demonstrated track record of substantive impact on inclusive excellence and the campus culture.
- Record of engagement in intentional, strategic work to impact inclusive excellence in positive ways. This award is not intended for progress that occurs by accident.
- Regularly employs processes and practices that are inclusive and in keeping with the Principles of Community as they have pursued change in the culture of their community.
- Serves as a role model for others, reflecting the highest values and mission of the land-grant university.

Nomination Process

To nominate a colleague, submit a letter of nomination addressing how the nominee meets the criteria for this award (two pages or less). Clearly state the nominee's name, title, and department/unit within the first paragraph. Do not include a CV or resume as part of the nomination.

Nomination Submission

The deadline is the first business day in February. Submit the nomination letter electronically (PDF) to provost_maindesk@Mail.colostate.edu. The subject line of the submission should read Inclusive Excellence Award – nominee's name. No hard copies or late submissions will be accepted.

Selection Process

A selection committee will be appointed by the Vice Provost for Inclusive Excellence and the Provost and Executive Vice President.
